DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Volume VIII.

FRANKFORT, KY., JANUARY 24, 1885.

Number 19.

Mr. W. T. Runyan on Wednesday sold out his entire stock of dry goods to Mr. S. Klass.

The young ladies Cooking Club gave an elegant entertainment at the Capital Hotel Wednesday evening.

We now have two candidates on the track for the Legislature and a third is said to be feeling his way out.

Mr. Geo. S. Green, of the Farmdale neighborhood, is announced in this issue as a candidate for County Clerk.

Both the City and County Assessors are now at work listing property. Mr. H. J. Hyde is assisting City Assessor Discol on the South Side.

Miss Monie Tate gave a German at the Capital Hotel Thursday evening. It was a very brilliant affair, many of the guests being from Louisville.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian Church are preparing for an entertainment to be given very soon. Time and place will be announced.

To-morrow night at 7 o'clock Mr. Darsie gives the second of a series of discourses on first principles. His subject will be "Our Doctrinal Position Settle."

In response to a call, signed by two hundred and thirty-six citizens of the county, Col. S. I. M. Major has announced himself as a candidate for the Legislature.

The City Council have determined to receive bids for putting a boiler into the Opera House to heat the building by steam, Messrs. Ferguson & Meek's contract having expired.

Messrs. S. & J. H. Told have brought up the river in the last few days four boxes of coal, which it is likely they will dispose of at retail. The R. J. Grace arrived Wednesday night with the first one.

The weather changed suddenly Friday night from wet to cold, and the snap has hold on pretty well ever since. The mercury Thursday morning stood at five degrees below zero.

A Card from Dr. Hatchitt.

Editor Roundabout:

One of the little things to do, known in a civilized community, is for a paper to make a fling at a man and then refuse to publish a reply in explanation. Such a paper is the Capital, which has already earned in this community the sobriquet, "chronic kicker."

On the 12th inst. this paper dilated editorially at some length about the "gross negligence or carelessness" of the Frankfort post-office, in holding a letter for two cents due on the 2d to the 5th inst., when nothing was due on the letter. An explanation was sent to the Capital, which it declined to publish. Besides, the whole thing was explained to the editor when he received the letter, and he knew when he wrote his editorial that this office was not responsible for any wrong.

The facts are: A letter for the Capital was received at this office on the 2d inst., marked due two cents. It was placed, as a matter of course, with letters held for postage, and a notice put in the Capital's box that it was so held. The letter was a reply in answer to the 12th inst. another notice was given. Not being called for, another notice was given on the 5th inst., the 4th being Sunday, and the letter was called for and delivered. Afterward when the editor came with what he said was the entire letter, complaining that it did not weigh over half an ounce, he was told that it was not rated at this office, and his controversy must be with the mailing office.

We had no option in the case, being compelled by law to collect the two cents.

We submit that these facts not only exculpate this office of any wrong, but show that the editor was guilty of "gross negligence or carelessness" or a want of capacity in attending to his own business, otherwise he would have had his letter on the 2nd inst., when first notified.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 30, 1884.-2m.

W. O. T. U. Notes.

Wm. Penn, in 1776: "The rum rules us. We desire it may be forbidden and never sold in the Indian country."

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets every Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the Chapel of the Christian Church. As there will be business of importance before the Union next Wednesday, it is earnestly desired that every member will be present.

Cincinnati has six miles of rum-holes, New York has seventeen and London seventy-five, a hundred miles in three cities. And what a road to travel! Flooded with scalding tears, lined with broken hearts, envied by desolate homes, almshouses, prisons and asylums, and paved with the bones of murdered victims; millions perish in driving at a break-neck pace over this sin-macadamized way to hell.

Many English physicians are trying to dispense with the use of alcohol in medicine. In St. George's Infirmary, London, where beer was discontinued in the treatment of transient cases, they were ready for discharge sooner than before. Thirty old women had been bed-ridden from one to seven years, being daily supplied with brandy or beer. When this was discontinued they all improved so as to be able to leave their beds, and some went to work. Many more cases might be given, showing that the use of beer as a medicine is a delusion and a snare.

"What is alcohol, or especially, is it a food, or poison, or medicine, or a luxury? Under the term alcohol, I include all intoxicating drinks, be cause it is on account of the alcohol, chiefly, if not wholly, that such drinks are used. Alcohol is nowhere to be found in any product of nature—was never itself created by God—but is essentially an artificial thing, produced by man through the destructive process of fermentation. Perfect health can only be obtained by total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks; because alcohol deranges the natural functions of the body, and produces a morbid condition of the tissues with which it comes in contact. Henry Munroe, M. D., F. L. S., lecturer on medical jurisprudence and histology at East Riding School of medicine."

There was standing room only at Havlin's Theatre last evening, and but little of that, so packed was the house. Morris and Beck's melodrama, the "Power of money," was the attraction and the performance was so pleasing to the audience that the applause was at times tumultuous and the explosions of laughter so hearty that it was itself a feature of the evening. While the "Power of Money" has been presented here before, it is this time so improved and rewritten that it is like a new play. The scenery is so realistic, and, at times, so grand that the curtain last evening had to go up several times in response to the manifestations of the delighted audience. Frederick Beck plays a double character, that of "Stuart Forsythe" and "John Forsythe," twin-brothers. He exhibits power and force, and has a fine physique that adds much to his character. Miss Lena Kindt, as a "Master Willie Wordsley," the son of the murdered farmer, makes a bright boy, mischievous and brave. Miss Lena is at home on the stage and won the audience from the first. Frank Davis as "Peter Lucius Jolland," kept the people in a roar or a shout every time he appeared. His songs and comical sayings and acts were exceedingly taking. Frank P. Jamison, as "Joel Carruthers," the villain of the piece, carried his part in a manner to set the gods wild. J. K. Vernon, as "Stagboot," the tramp, was excessively triumphant, and all of the minor parts assumed by male members of the company were well handled. Miss Fannie Davis did excellent as "Artemesia Clinton Jolland." The "Aunt Dorothy" of Miss Emma Leland was well handled, and Miss Jennie Jackson, as "Jeanne Wordsley, the General's daughter, was extremely clever." Cincinnati Enquirer, Nov. 3, 1884.

An End to Bone Scraping.
Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. Used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Jos. LeCompte.

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

A C A R D !

ON THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, 1885,

I will adopt a new system in my business, and after that date,

SELL STRICTLY FOR CASH.

The credit plan has been so abused in the past few years that it is no longer to the interest of either the buyer or seller to continue it. Besides its being a constant annoyance to the merchant, it is a very expensive luxury to the cash and prompt paying credit customers, as they have not only to pay a fair profit on all the goods they buy, but an additional profit to make up for money lost on those customers who don't pay at all, and to pay for book-keepers, collectors, and all other expenses of the credit system. In making this change I am sure that it is in the interest of my customers, if not to myself, as I will save them on all future purchases at least 5 to 25 per cent.

Thanking my old friends for their kind support in the past, and hoping to receive their patronage in the future by serving them faithfully, I am

Respectfully,

L. B. MARSHALL,

Successor to Marshall & Meagher.

The work on the pumping station for the new Water Works is being pushed along rapidly. The contractors are at work making an excavation seventy feet in depth into the face of the hill for the necessary buildings.

Drs. Grattigny & Norris, the physicians from Cincinnati who cured the cancer upon Mr. A. G. Brawner's face, will be at the Capital Hotel next Wednesday and Thursday, and all who are troubled with anything like cancer should be certain to go to see them.

The Yeoman having knocked the chip off the Capital's shoulder our two neighbors are now sailing into each other on the question of the correct weight of a bushel of coal. When either of you get enough, boys, just "holter" and we'll step in and pull the top man off.

Persons living out on the Lawrenceburg pike, who have to travel after dark, complain that the contractors at work on the pump house of the Water Company do not place a light near their work, and it is dangerous for persons passing in a vehicle or on horseback, as the pike is rather narrow at that point.

After Suffering Eleven Years.
DANWON, GA., August 30, 1884.—I suffered with tetter for eleven years. It was on my face and body, and gave me untold trouble and pain. I tried the virtue of many remedies, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but found no relief, and had almost despaired of my life. I was induced to try Swift's Specific as a last resort. After taking six bottles the tetter was removed and my skin smoothed off, and I am perfectly well. I feel like a new man. Swift's Specific is undoubtedly the best blood purifier in the world, and I recommend it to suffering humanity everywhere.
